Methodist Churches Observe 'Race Relations Day' Sunday

Sunday will be observed in Methodist Churches throughout the United States as "Race Relations Day." This is a special day in which Christian Brotherhood is emphasized and special offerings are taken for the advancement of Negro education. The offerings taken in the Southern California-Arizona Conference go to support the Samuel Huston Negro College, in Austin, Texas.

The First Methodist Church of Torrance will exchange pastors and choirs with the Holman Memorial Church in Los Angeles. Rev. L. L. White, pastor of the Holman Memorial Church, will preach in Torrance and Rev. Clarence E. Miller will preach to the Negro congregation in Los Angeles. Rev. White will bring his fine Negro choir of thirty voices to the Torrance Methodist Church and the Torrance Choir under the direction of Vernon Robinson will accompany Rev. Miller to the Holman Memorial Church located at 2003 W. Jefferson Blvd. Members and friends of the church are urged to be present for this special service on Sunday morning, or any who desire will be welcome as visitors at the Negro church in Los Angeles, according to Rev. Miller.

At 7 p. m. Sunday evening, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, assisted by the Methodist Youth Fellowship will present a "Mediterranean Tour" in technicolor slides and a guest speaker, Miss Matilda Moses from Africa. Everyone is welcome.

This is the slogan of the local Nazarene Church, 1501 West Carson, for the next eight weeks. A special crusade is in progress to encourage Sunday school and church attendance. The church is also launching a building fund drive, looking forward to a Sunday school and church building project in the near future.

First Lutheran Father and Son Banquet Friday

The third annual Father and Son banquet of the Brotherhood of First Lutheran church will be held Friday evening, February 9, at 6:30 in the parish hall. An interesting program has been planned by the committee with Les Breitenfeldt as chairman. James Boucher will act as master of ceremonies with the address of welcome given by Carlton Faulk, the Brotherhood president.

Charlie Aldrich (Walking and Talking Charlie), the TV star, will be there, also Dudley Gray the magician.

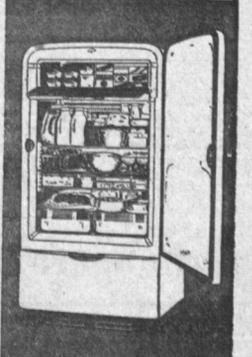

St. Catherine Court Plans Spaghetti Dinner

The executive board of Court of St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, met Monday evening, February 5th at the home of Mrs. John V. Murray, with Mrs. J. J. MacDonald presiding.

A report was given on the recent card party, in charge of Mesdames Joseph Lucas, Lyle O'Hara, C. J. Flynn, Albert Elder, George Probert, Daniel Maine and the Misses Rosa and Katherine Ortman.

The monthly business meeting is scheduled for next Monday, February 12th, and plans are being made for a spaghetti dinner on February 26.

Mesdames Frank H. Forester and Howard Owen attended a social meeting of Court of Angeles in Los Angeles last week. Mrs. Forester is District Deputy of Court of Angeles.
